SANTA CRUZ VALLEY UNION HIGH SCHOOL

Eloy, Arizona

Age in which education is not just a luxury . . .

The place is Santa Cruz High; the time, now. The main character: you. You are a student here at S.C. Are you getting what you should out of your high school?

In April of 1964, President Lyndon B. Johnson made a statement. It began: "We have entered an age in which education is not just a luxury . . ." Everyone can now obtain some form of schooling. Education is public. The statement continues: ". . . permitting some men an advantage over others." Think of that. No one can trample on you because of your lack of knowledge. A dictatorship cannot exist in countries where the well-informed live. Education is essential to the continuance of free practices. "It has become a necessity without which a person is defenseless in this complex, industrialized society . . ." Defenseless—a strong word; how well it expresses the hopeless darkness of a person who had a chance to become a better man and didn't take it—the man confined to menial labor, the man who will someday lose his job to a better educated machine!

We have truly entered the Century of the Educated Man."

. . . but a necessity

without which a person is defenseless.

Board meeting in the conference room: James Burns (member), P. S. Thompson (vice-president), David Pretzer (president), E. A. Thomasson (member), and Fred North (member).

The office — in a rare moment of quietness. It isn't often that the bustle ceases, the typewriters are covered, and everyone goes home.

SUPERINTENDENT'S MESSAGE

Never before has the training and the development of our youth received the emphasis that it has today. The techniques of teaching and learning are more complex and are changing. The tools of learning are improving beyond imagination. The first twenty years of our lives are spent in growing up, physically and mentally, training for citizenship and effective participation in our country's affairs, in attaining the skills for service, for a craft, and for a profession. Education must be high quality and the recruitment and preparation of teachers is paramount to high quality education. The role of the teacher in the learning process cannot be over emphasized. The understanding of children, dedication to their education, ability to handle new ideas and techniques are deciding factors in the success of the student.

If we are to take advantage of all the advances in technology we must learn to be responsible individuals and citizens. To this end we must dedicate ourselves.

1967 — our last big high school year! Our education has come to an end; or has it? "... yet there's still the continent to explore." We are not finished—we must go on to higher education if we are to fulfill, the challenge of our motto.

Go back, way back, to 1964 — remember our Freshman dreams! We were an eager group in our first green year at Santa Cruz. Think back and see if you can recall that fresh and wonderful year filled with

Suddenly we were—JUNIORS. We ordered our class rings; we planned excitedly for our Prom, "Shower of Stars," and worked industriously making money to finance it. It was a success—starstruck students and teachers alike enjoyed themselves in the "grand ballroom." Then came second semester exams and a rush of elation as we realized that—

Our last year has come! We are the Class of '67. Bruce Martan is senior class president; Linda Waddle, vice-president; Joyce Jordan, secretary-treasurer; Mimi McGinnis, girl representative; and Ed Pretzer, boy representative. There is joy in knowing we've come this far; there is sadness, too, knowing it's the last time we'll all be together. We look to graduation but, even more important, we look beyond—to further education, to furthering our prime ambitions. And let us remember, ambition is not just the setting of goals, but the ultimate fulfillment of the very same.

If there's one thing a sophomore learns, it's how to pick on frosh!

They seem to have forgotten last year, when they were the babies of Santa Cruz High. This year's sophs did constructive things also—like planning and executing a successful Mixer (who says they pick on freshmen all the time), and building a prize winning homecoming float. They have great hopes for next year. Good luck to them!

Freshmen Make Quick Adaptations

We have boarded the boat and are rowing our way through our first storms on the sea of high school education. Some of us have fallen from the boat, but most of us are moving towards our landing place, our goal. Our Captain Tim Greer is navigating the way and we, as passengers, are following in his wake. At first we couldn't tell if we were progressing onward, standing still, or slipping back, but we now know we have a firm hold and are making headway.

FHA

The Santa Cruz Chapter of Future Homemakers grew to almost capacity size this year with the initiation of thirty new members. In past years the club has been fairly small due to less home economics class enrollment; however, freshmen girls are now required to make use of all available facilities in the new Home Ec-Science building.

FHA is a national organization. It is arranged in three other levels besides national: state, district, and chapter. A convention is held each year from the district on up, bringing workshops where members have a chance to gather new ideas and to make new friends. National objectives are supported each year, and these, along with the fulfilling of the organization's eight purposes, keep members active and growing.

FFA

Started in 1952, the Eloy Chapter of Future Farmers is a fairly recent addition to the national organization. That began in 1928, and is one of the two youth organizations with a Presidential charter.

There are five different levels of FFA: national, regional, state, district, and local; there are thousands of members. The Eloy club initiated nine Chapter Farmers and five Greenhands this year, bringing the total membership to forty.

Boys involved in FFA are required to take agricultural courses. Working hand in hand with these classes, the club furthers interest and provides awards for distinctive accomplishments. The Future Farmers motto sums up the brilliant goals they work toward:

Doing to learn; learning to do; earning to live, living to serve.

Many Obstacles

Spanish Club this year is under the direction of Mr. Garcia, instructor. The club originated in 1954 and has decreased in size because of lack of interest over the years. The major requirement for joining this club is to have taken or be taking one year of Spanish.

The purpose of the club is a worthy and practical one: To enable the student to use his knowledge of the Spanish language not only in the classroom but in everyday situations along with fellow club members.

Librarians Meet Demands Of Expanding System

OFFICERS: (FRONT) Mary Calvo, Historian; Carolyn Etheredge, Vice-president. (BACK) Julie Martinez, Secretary-treasurer; Sharon Meiner, Parliamentarian; and Evelyn Cornman, President.

The Librarian's Club was started in 1963 by Mr. McGlynn. There are now 18 members in the organization. The only requirement for joining is to be a student librarian. Training better librarians is the main purpose of this club. Members attend the annual convention held at different schools each year. The Librarian's money-making projects are cake raffles and bake sales here at the school. The money goes toward a party at the end of the school year.

A yearbook is a memory book, giving a complete history of a school year. The 1966-67 WHIRLWIND staff, working hard to meet deadlines, has made this type of book available for the students. Anyone enrolled in S.C. is eligible to join this group, provided he invests incentive, a willingness to work and time. The '66 WHIRLWIND received a second place rating from the Columbia Press Association Rating Service by obtaining 875 points out of a possible 1000. The '67 staffers made up their minds to produce a first-rate book.

Objective Of Athletic-Coordinate Clubs

GAA, which was begun in 1956, is a club for all girls who are interested in sports. Each year an initiation is held, and the brave girls dress up. Letters, representing a certain number of points, can be earned. These points are gained in various things, but mostly in P.E. classes and by participation in different tournaments throughout the school year.

GAA sponsors the Honey Dance, and helps with the Christmas dance. Money-making projects during the year build funds from which a scholarship is given to the most outstanding senior girl in GAA, and who intends to teach physical education. A smaller scholarship is also given to a boy who will have a chance to put it to good use, and who would not have a way to further his education otherwise.

It has become a tradition, in the last three years, to have a banquet at which the eligible girls receive their letters, pins, patches, and trophies.

OFFICERS: (FRONT) Jean Pretzer, Secretary; Anita Degracia, Vice-president; Maggie Flores, Parliamentarian. (BACK) Connie Coronado, Treasurer; Mercy Murrietta, President; and Olga Jaquez, Point Secretary.

GAA

Lettermen's

The members of the Lettermen's Club represent the best in teamwork, sportsmanship, and physical fitness in the school. These qualities are some of the requirements students must achieve to become a member of the Lettermen's Club. The club also requires that an athlete participate in either 12 quarters of football, 20 quarters of basketball, 21 baseball innings, or have earned 12 points in track. The Club's most extensive drive is raising money for the jackets awarded to lettering seniors each year, with the largest money raising project being the Annual Talent Show, at which the Lettermen's Sweetheart is mistress of ceremonies.

The Golden Masque is a new organization on campus to honor outstanding speech students. Members must maintain a 2.0 average in Speech, and earn twelve points accumulated by participating in speech tournaments, class plays, assemblies, and by working on backstage crews.

On Monday, December 5th, the new members were awarded golden masks in a surprise initiation. The mask itself represents the rich history of the theater, and serves to mask individual personalities when performing in front of an audience. The golden color of the mask represents the sparkle of individual performance.

Each member has reflected achievement, ability, and dependability.

The Student Council holds an integral position in school life. It governs the entire student body through a class representative system, encouraging students to take an active part in their school's affairs. Its bi-monthly meetings are always open to all students at Santa Cruz. The council manages all major elections, as well as carrying through projects such as school spirit campaigns, and safety drives. It is responsible for Homecoming Week festivities and the Christmas Dance. Western Week is another major event in its busy and hard-working schedule.

Under Sponsor Mr. Valdez's charge, the Council grew in importance in its 18th successful year.

OFFICERS: Leola Ordway, Vice-president; Alan Chesley, President; and Linda Harding, Secretary-treasurer.

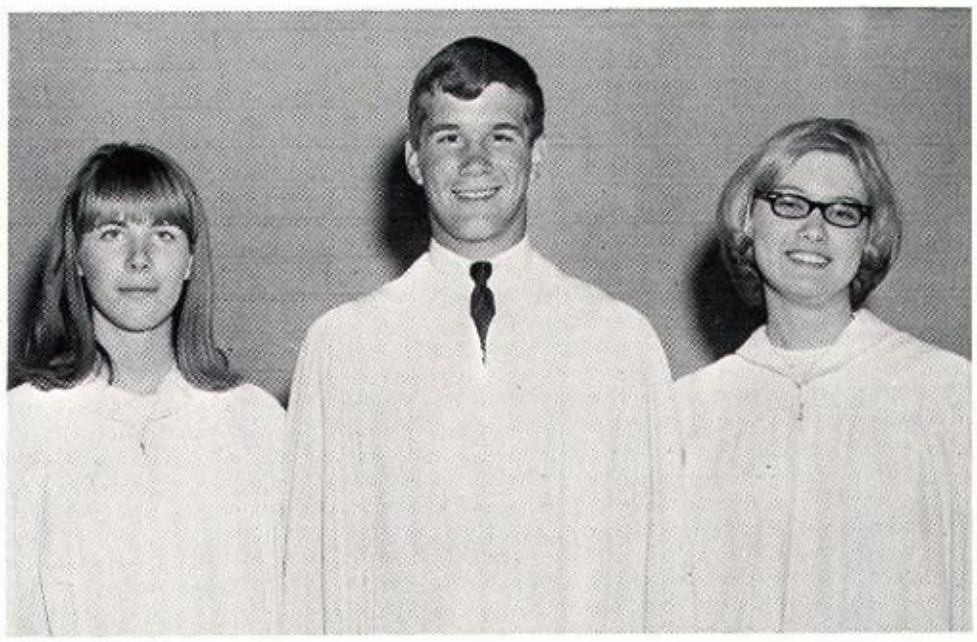
National Honor Society

National Honor Society was established at Santa Cruz in 1952. It is based on four principles, shown by the four letters C, S, L, and S on the base of its symbolic keystone and torch. What do they mean? Character—having the urge to stand on one's principles; Scholarship—going one step further, one hour longer than other students; Leadership—guiding people through precept and example; and Service—not just getting much done, but how that much is done.

As shown by its name, NHS is an honorary organization. Mr. Treadaway, sponsor, is in charge of its sole function—annual initiation of those meeting its high standards.



OFFICERS: Leola Ordway, President; David Holmes, Vice-president; and Joyce Jordan, Secretary-treasurer.

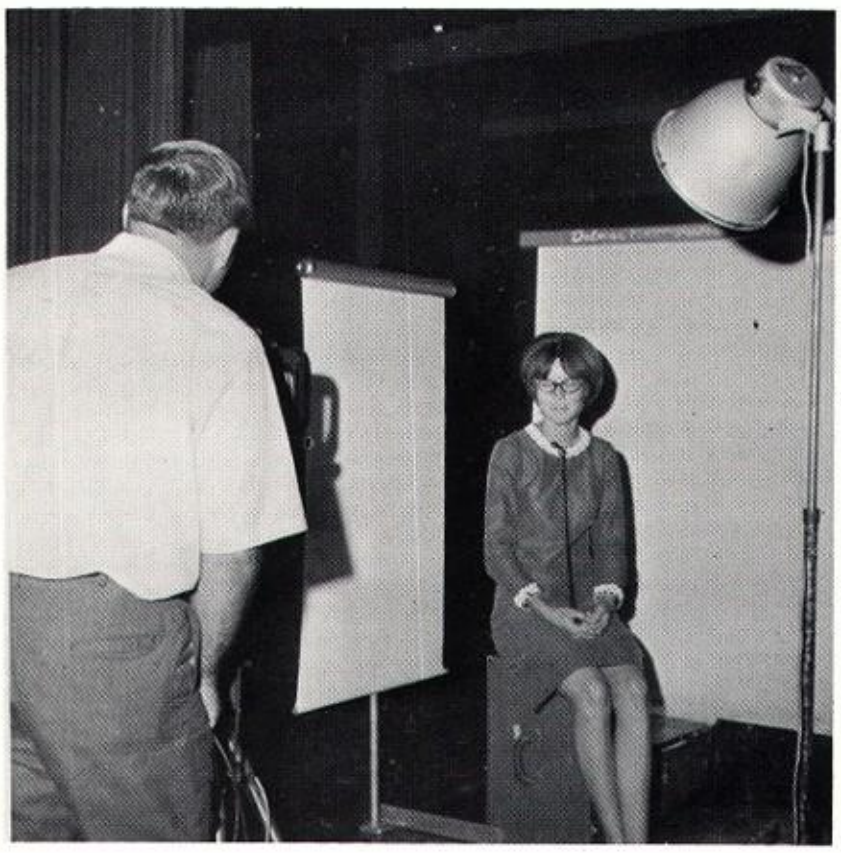
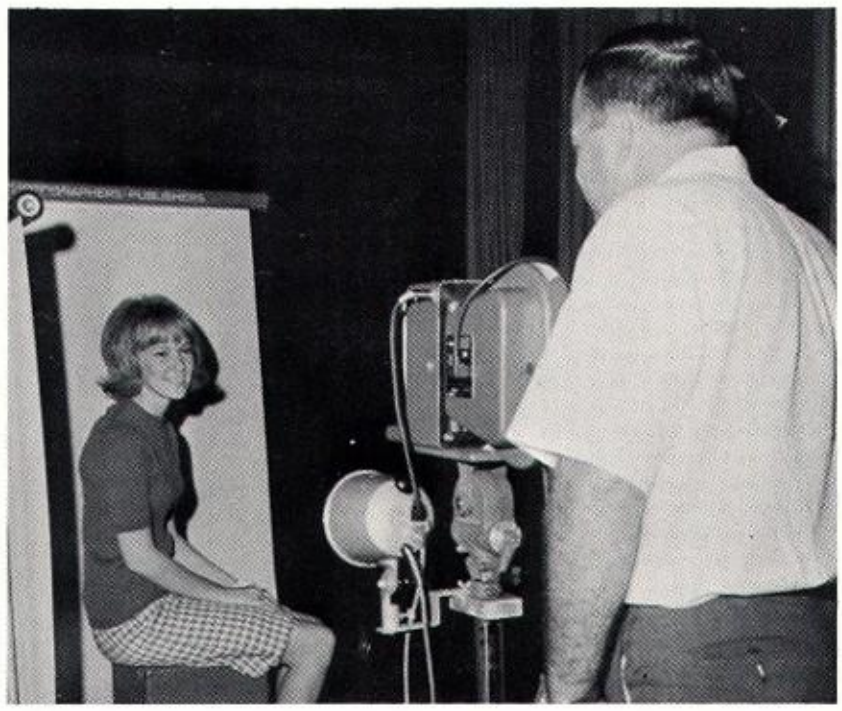
Students take stock of their clothing coloration. This data is printed down to help produce realistic portraits.

Posing the subject occupies major part of the photographer's time, each person having different photogenic angles.

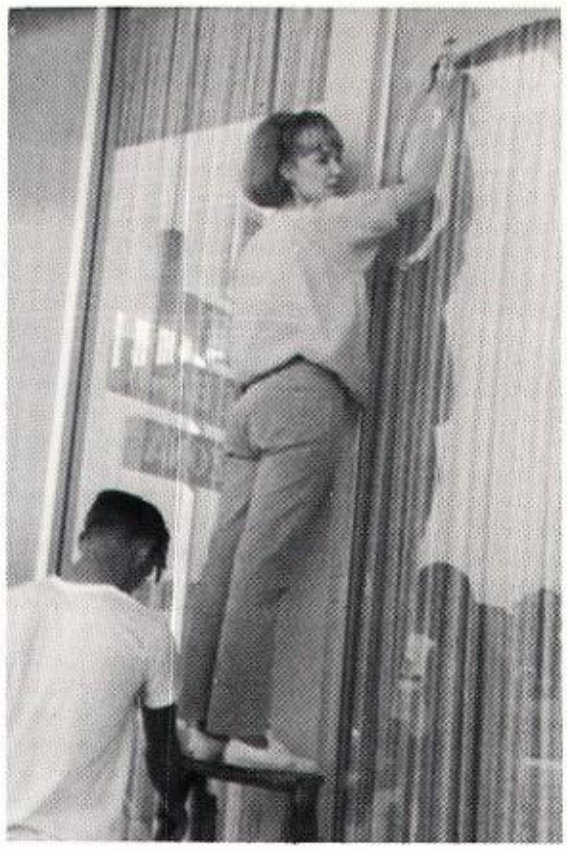




After the position is mutually agreeable, light flashes as a shutter clicks, and the mechanics of the situation are over.

Prints of each photo taken are sorted and identified and then put into the proper copy sheet by staff members.

Seasonal Art Brightens School, Community



Art class students splashed and splattered ghouls over downtown windows in a Hallowe'en contest sponsored by the Eloy Women's Club.

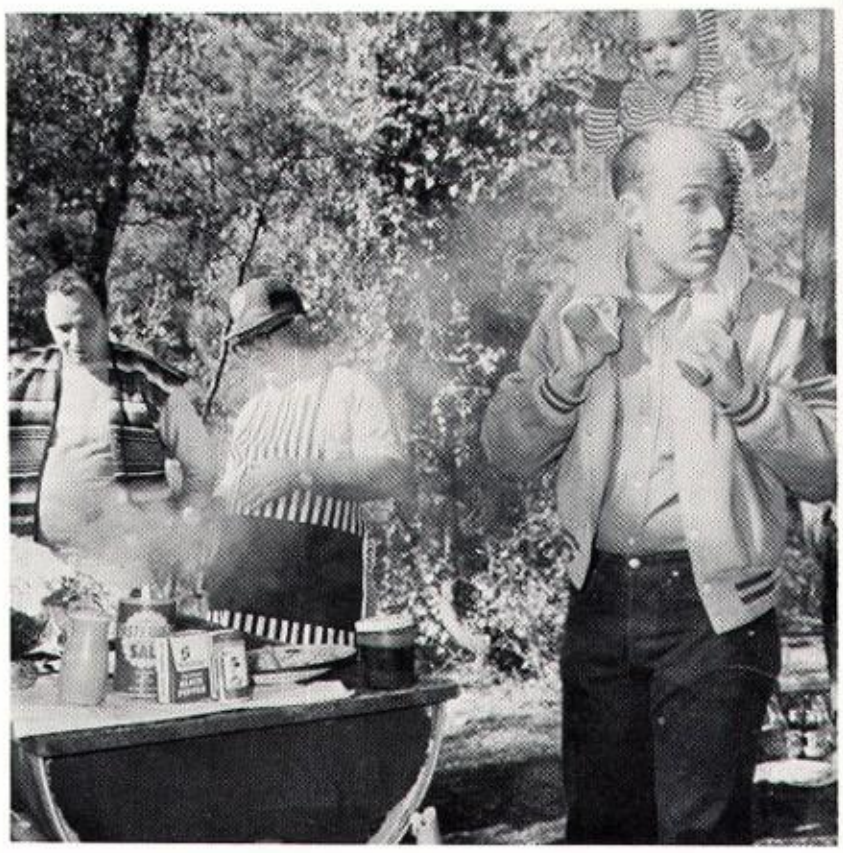
Jeanne Marshall and Julie Nutter show their abilities and Hallowe'en spirit as they decorate end windows of the new wing.

Mrs. Gobea, art instructor, prepares for the onset of yearbook portraits—with student aid.

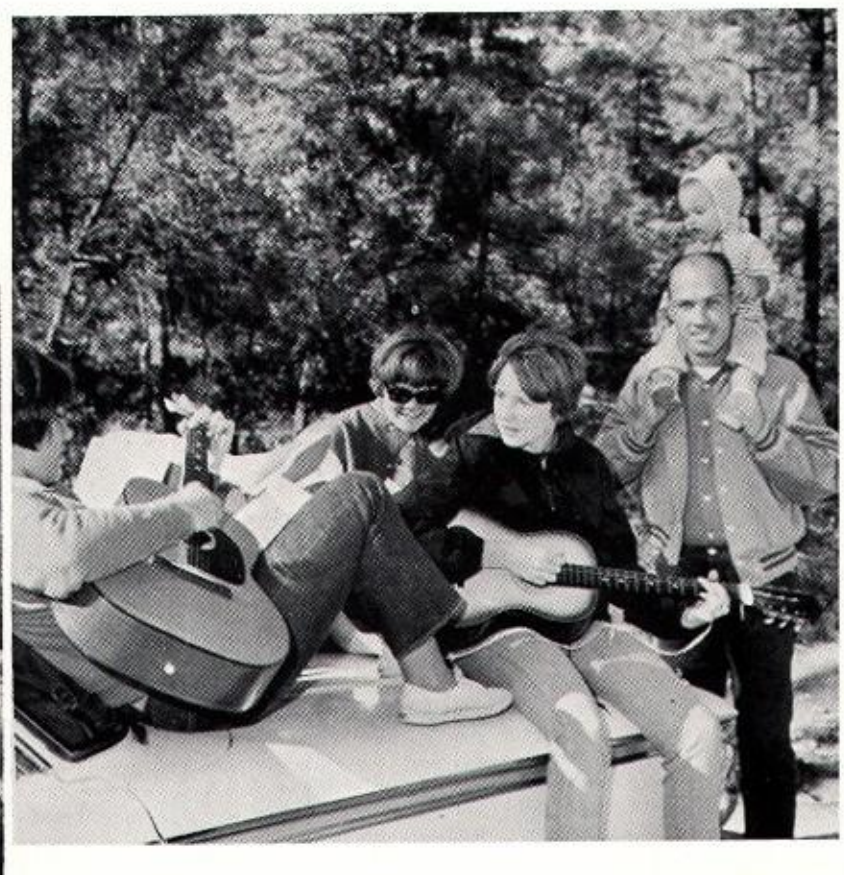
Decorations are such a vital part of Christmas . . .

Faculty, Personnel Also Have "Human" Moments

Kenneth Cornwell, a former SCVUHS student, explains the new activities-accounts system to Mrs. Wootan, secretary.



Mr. McGlynn, librarian, observes the steak-cooking techniques of Mr. Berryhill, head cook and superintendent. Mike sort of wishes "Daddy"* would watch somewhere else.



Teacher's kids have a blast, too, at faculty picnics. Cathy Hawse, Lynette Wootan, and Debbi Hall park themselves on a car hood and roll out the instruments.

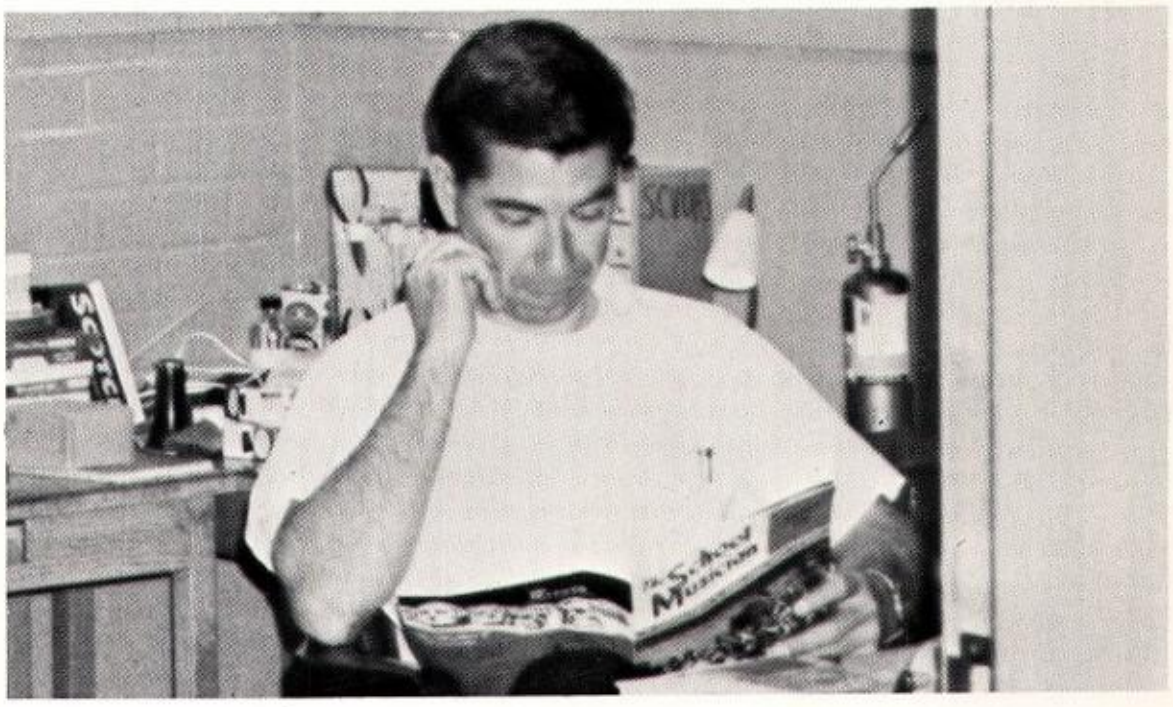
MUSIC DIRECTOR, Mr. Peter M. Ashkine, takes time out from busy schedule to read and get new ideas for band and glee club.

S.C. is proud of the records set by the marching and concert bands under the direction of Mr. Ashkine. The band received an excellent rating at the U of A Band Day. It also performs during halftime at the football games, and marches in the homecoming parade. The Concert Band gives two performances during the year; one in the winter and one in the fall.



Swingin' Devils On National T.V.

Brenda Linder
S.C. Majorette

The Swingin' Devils, a combo started in September, climbed in prestige by following in the footsteps of Herb Alpert and the T.J. Brass. Their first appearance was the Pinal County Talent Show in which they took first place. From there they went to the Arizona State Fair Talent Show, placing in the top twenty five. A week after the Fair they were invited by a talent scout to appear on the Ted Mack Amateur Hour. Many organizations from the Valley offered their financial support to make the trip to T.V. City in Hollywood possible.

The musical group taped a show in front of a live audience, and the show was broadcast on January 29.

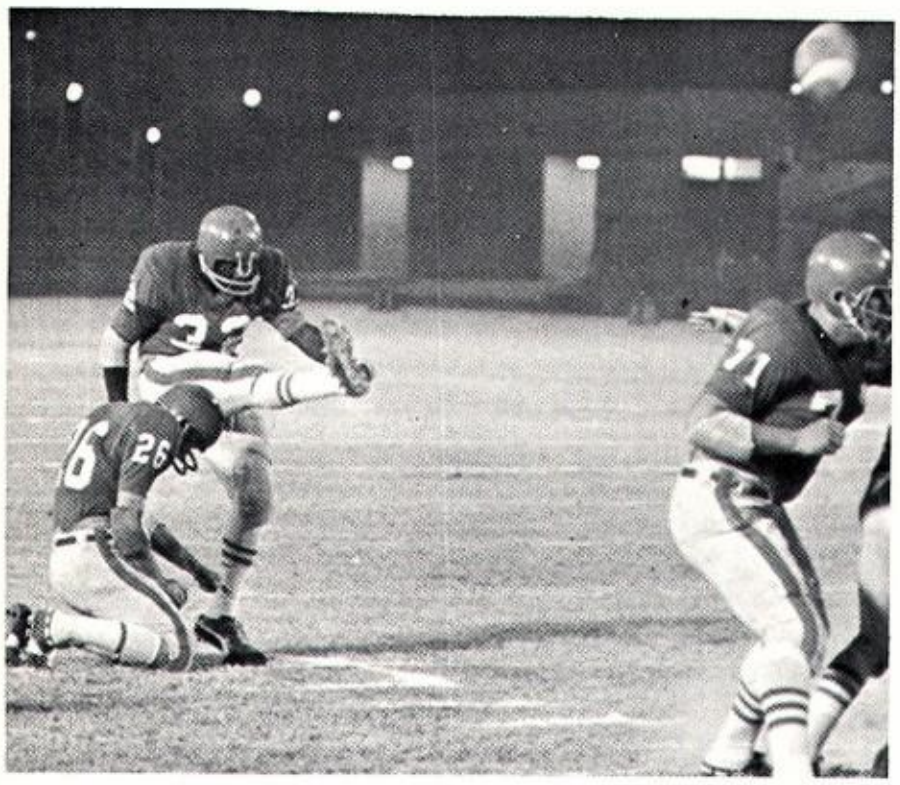
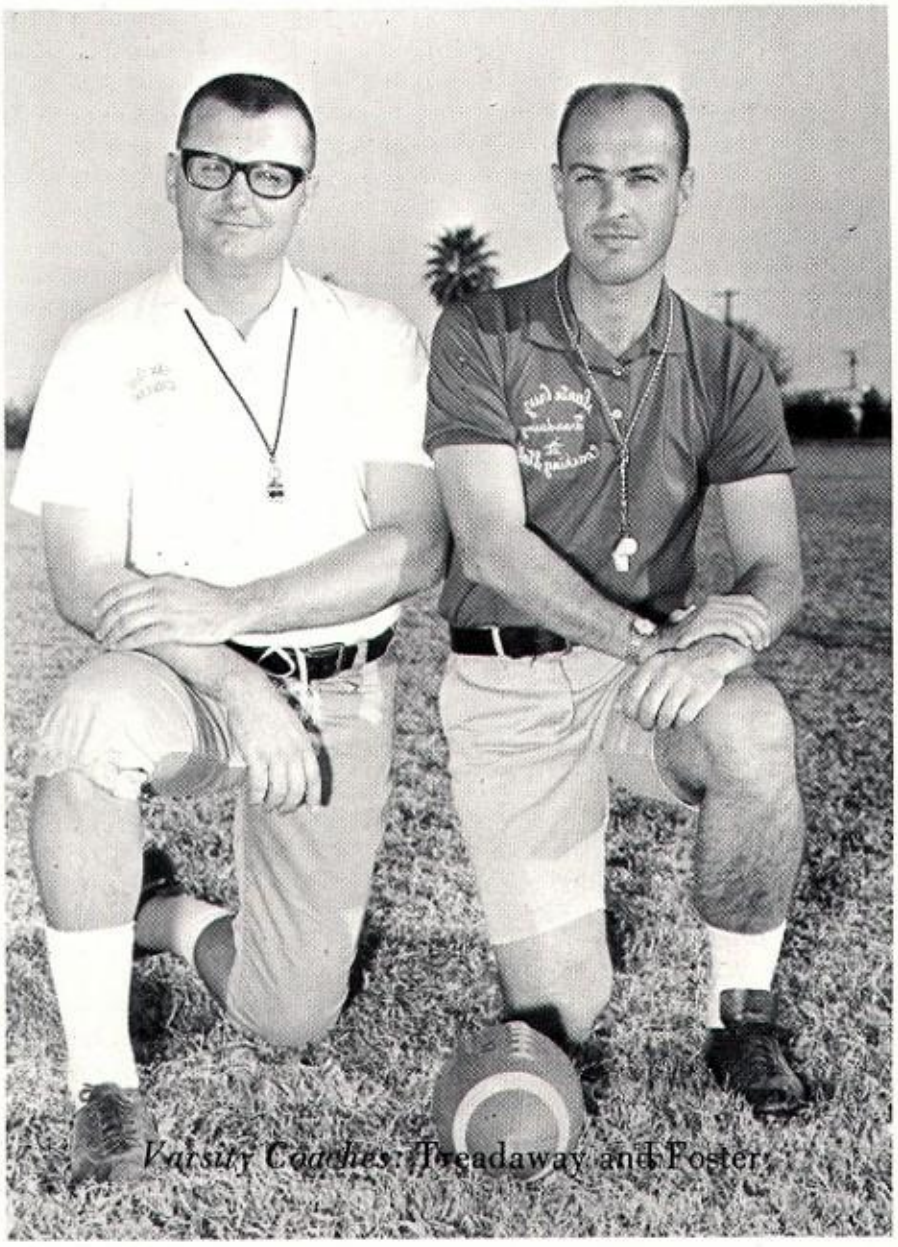
Devils Hold State "A" Title Two Years Straight, Defeat Agua Fria



In State Championship game at UA Stadium, Albert Jackson (32) kicks field goal that turns out to be the difference in a 13-16 win, while Steen (26) holds and Martan (71) blocks.



Varsity Coaches: Treadaway and Foster

Les Rankin (28) gains important yardage in the SC-AF game. Les led team during the season in scoring touchdowns, had total of 13.

Following their victory over the Safford Bulldogs with a surprising 23-7 score, the Dust Devils pulled off a squeaker over the Agua Fria Owls 16-13 in the U. of A. Stadium in Tucson, to win the State Class "A" Championship for the second year in a row. The reigning Devils have won 23 of their last 25 games, with 12 straight conference wins from years 65-66 combined. The tough Devil defense hasn't given up more than 2 touchdowns in a single game covering the past two years.

Three of the Devils made the Class "A" All-State First Team. They are: Gary Kinne, Bruce Martan, and Les Rankin. David Holmes made the Second Team, and those earning honorable mention were J. T. Burchett, Alan Chesley, Carlos Coronado, Sal Gandara, and Ernie Hernandez.

S.C. Crushes Three

S.C.—CANYON DEL ORO

The Dust Devils, going into the season unprepared, handed their season opener to Canyon del Oro by a score of 12-7. S.C. was plagued by six fumbles and injuries to two of their starting line-up. Although Eloy held the edge in total yardage, they weren't ready for the Dorados. Dean Hampton scored the lone S.C. touchdown.

Dean Hampton (25) makes gain while J. T. Burchett (14) blocks in playoff game with Safford.

S.C.—GLOBE

Santa Cruz downed the Globe Tigers to win their first conference game of the season 15-7. The Tigers scored the first touchdown, but from there, it was Devils all the way. The Devils first score came on a safety when Globe's quarterback was tackled in his own end-zone. One out of 2 extra point efforts by Jackson was good.

Robert Burchett (30) carries ball against Ajo in season finale. Gary Kinne (50), Rufino Sauceda (62), Sal Gandara (85), David Holmes (78).

S.C.—AJO

The Dust Devils, behind the strong passing arm of J. T. Burchett, stormed to a brilliant 33-14 win over the previously undefeated Ajo Raiders. Burchett connected for 200 aerial yards and 4 touchdowns. The Raiders passing attack was completely stymied by the tough Eloy defense. The Eloy-Ajo game decided the winner of the "III A" Division.

Head-on tackle by Tom Steen stops Safford ball carrier for no gain. Frank Awbrey (84), Alan Chesley (66), Rudell Walker (81), Albert Jackson (32), Ernie Hernandez (12).

S.C.—WILCOX

After getting off to a slow start, the Dust Devils defeated the Wilcox Cowboys in a non-conference battle at Wilcox. Rankin and Jackson tallied the 2 scores for Santa Cruz. The Devil offense rolled up nearly 300 yards, but sustained drives only in the 2nd and 4th periods.

Ben Malone (24) fights for extra yards against Safford with the help of Robert Burchett (30) and Sal Gandara (85).

Undefeated Teams

S.C.—FLOWING WELLS

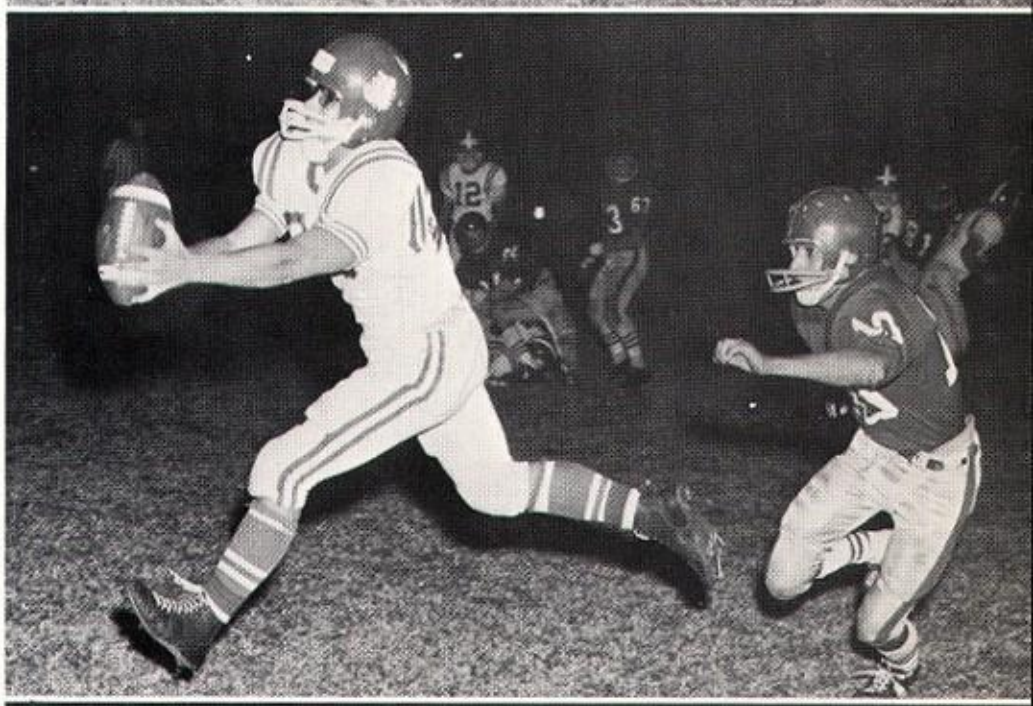
Eloy was handed its second loss of the season as the Flowing Wells Caballeros defeated them by a score of 12-7. The Cabs scored the winning touchdown on a 64 yard pass play with three minutes left on the clock. Martan, Jackson and Chesley showed outstanding defensive play.

Tom Steen gets set to make tackle in Flowing Wells game. Ernie Hernandez (12) comes in to help. Frank Awbrey (84).

S.C.—NOGALES

Completely dominating play throughout the game the Devils shut out the Nogales Apaches by a score of 20-0. The Devils managed only one score in the 1st half, but came back with touchdowns in the 3rd and 4th quarters. Making his debut on the Varsity squad, Ben Malone supplied the final tally for the Devils.

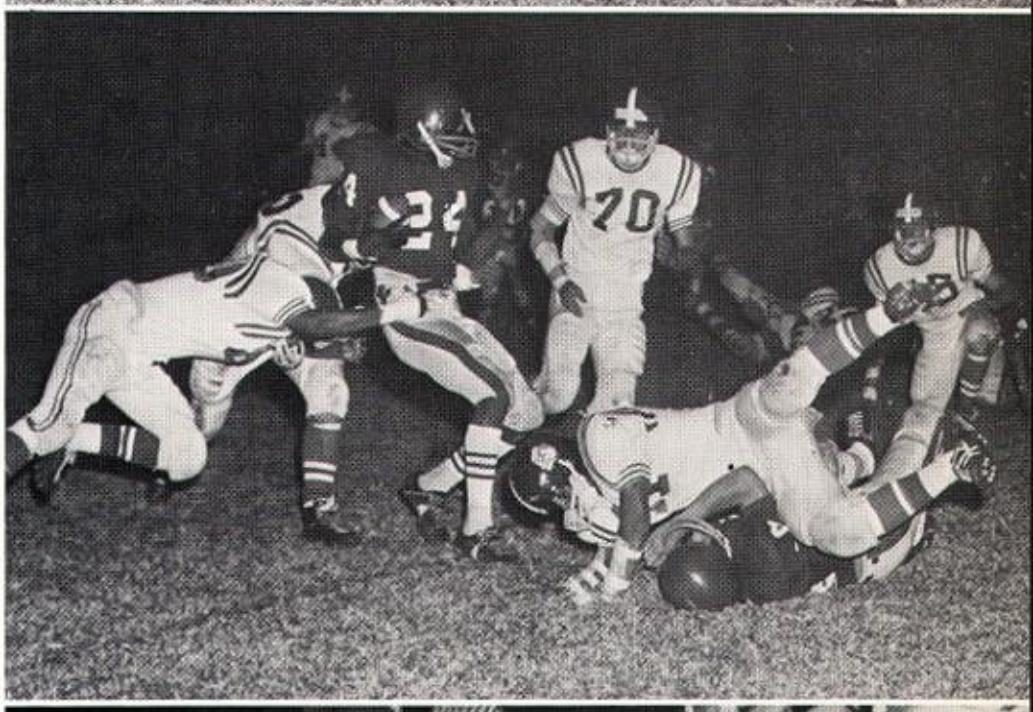
Safford completes pass, but Carlos Coronado (10) is on the prowl.



S.C.—COOLIDGE

In a tremendous display of determination and spirit, the Dust Devils knocked Coolidge from the ranks of the unbeaten in a Homecoming battle, on the S.C. field, The 13-7 upset of the mighty bears came as a pleasant surprise to Santa Cruz fans. T.D.'s were made by Rankin and Hampton.

Ben Malone (24) carries ball against Safford in playoff.



S.C.—SUPERIOR

Led by the fine running of tailback Les Rankin, the Dust Devils posted their first win of the season by rolling over the Superior Panthers 21-6. S.C. completely dominated the game until the few minutes when the Panthers posted their only score. Eloy's defense held Superior to 31 yards on the ground.

Les Rankin (28) scores one of three T.D.'s against Superior in the first conference game.

Girls' Athletic Development Also Essential

Lupe Lucero misses tip in game against Florence.

Physical fitness is one of the most important aspects in a student's development. This nation is built on fitness, physical as well as mental. In order to be mentally awake, a student must be physically fit. From the time a student enters high school until he graduates, he must have completed two years of physical education. Physical fitness isn't just getting out on the field and doing exercises. At Santa Cruz, a course is given concerning "Medical Self Help." Without a physical fitness program, this nation would become a nation of weaklings.

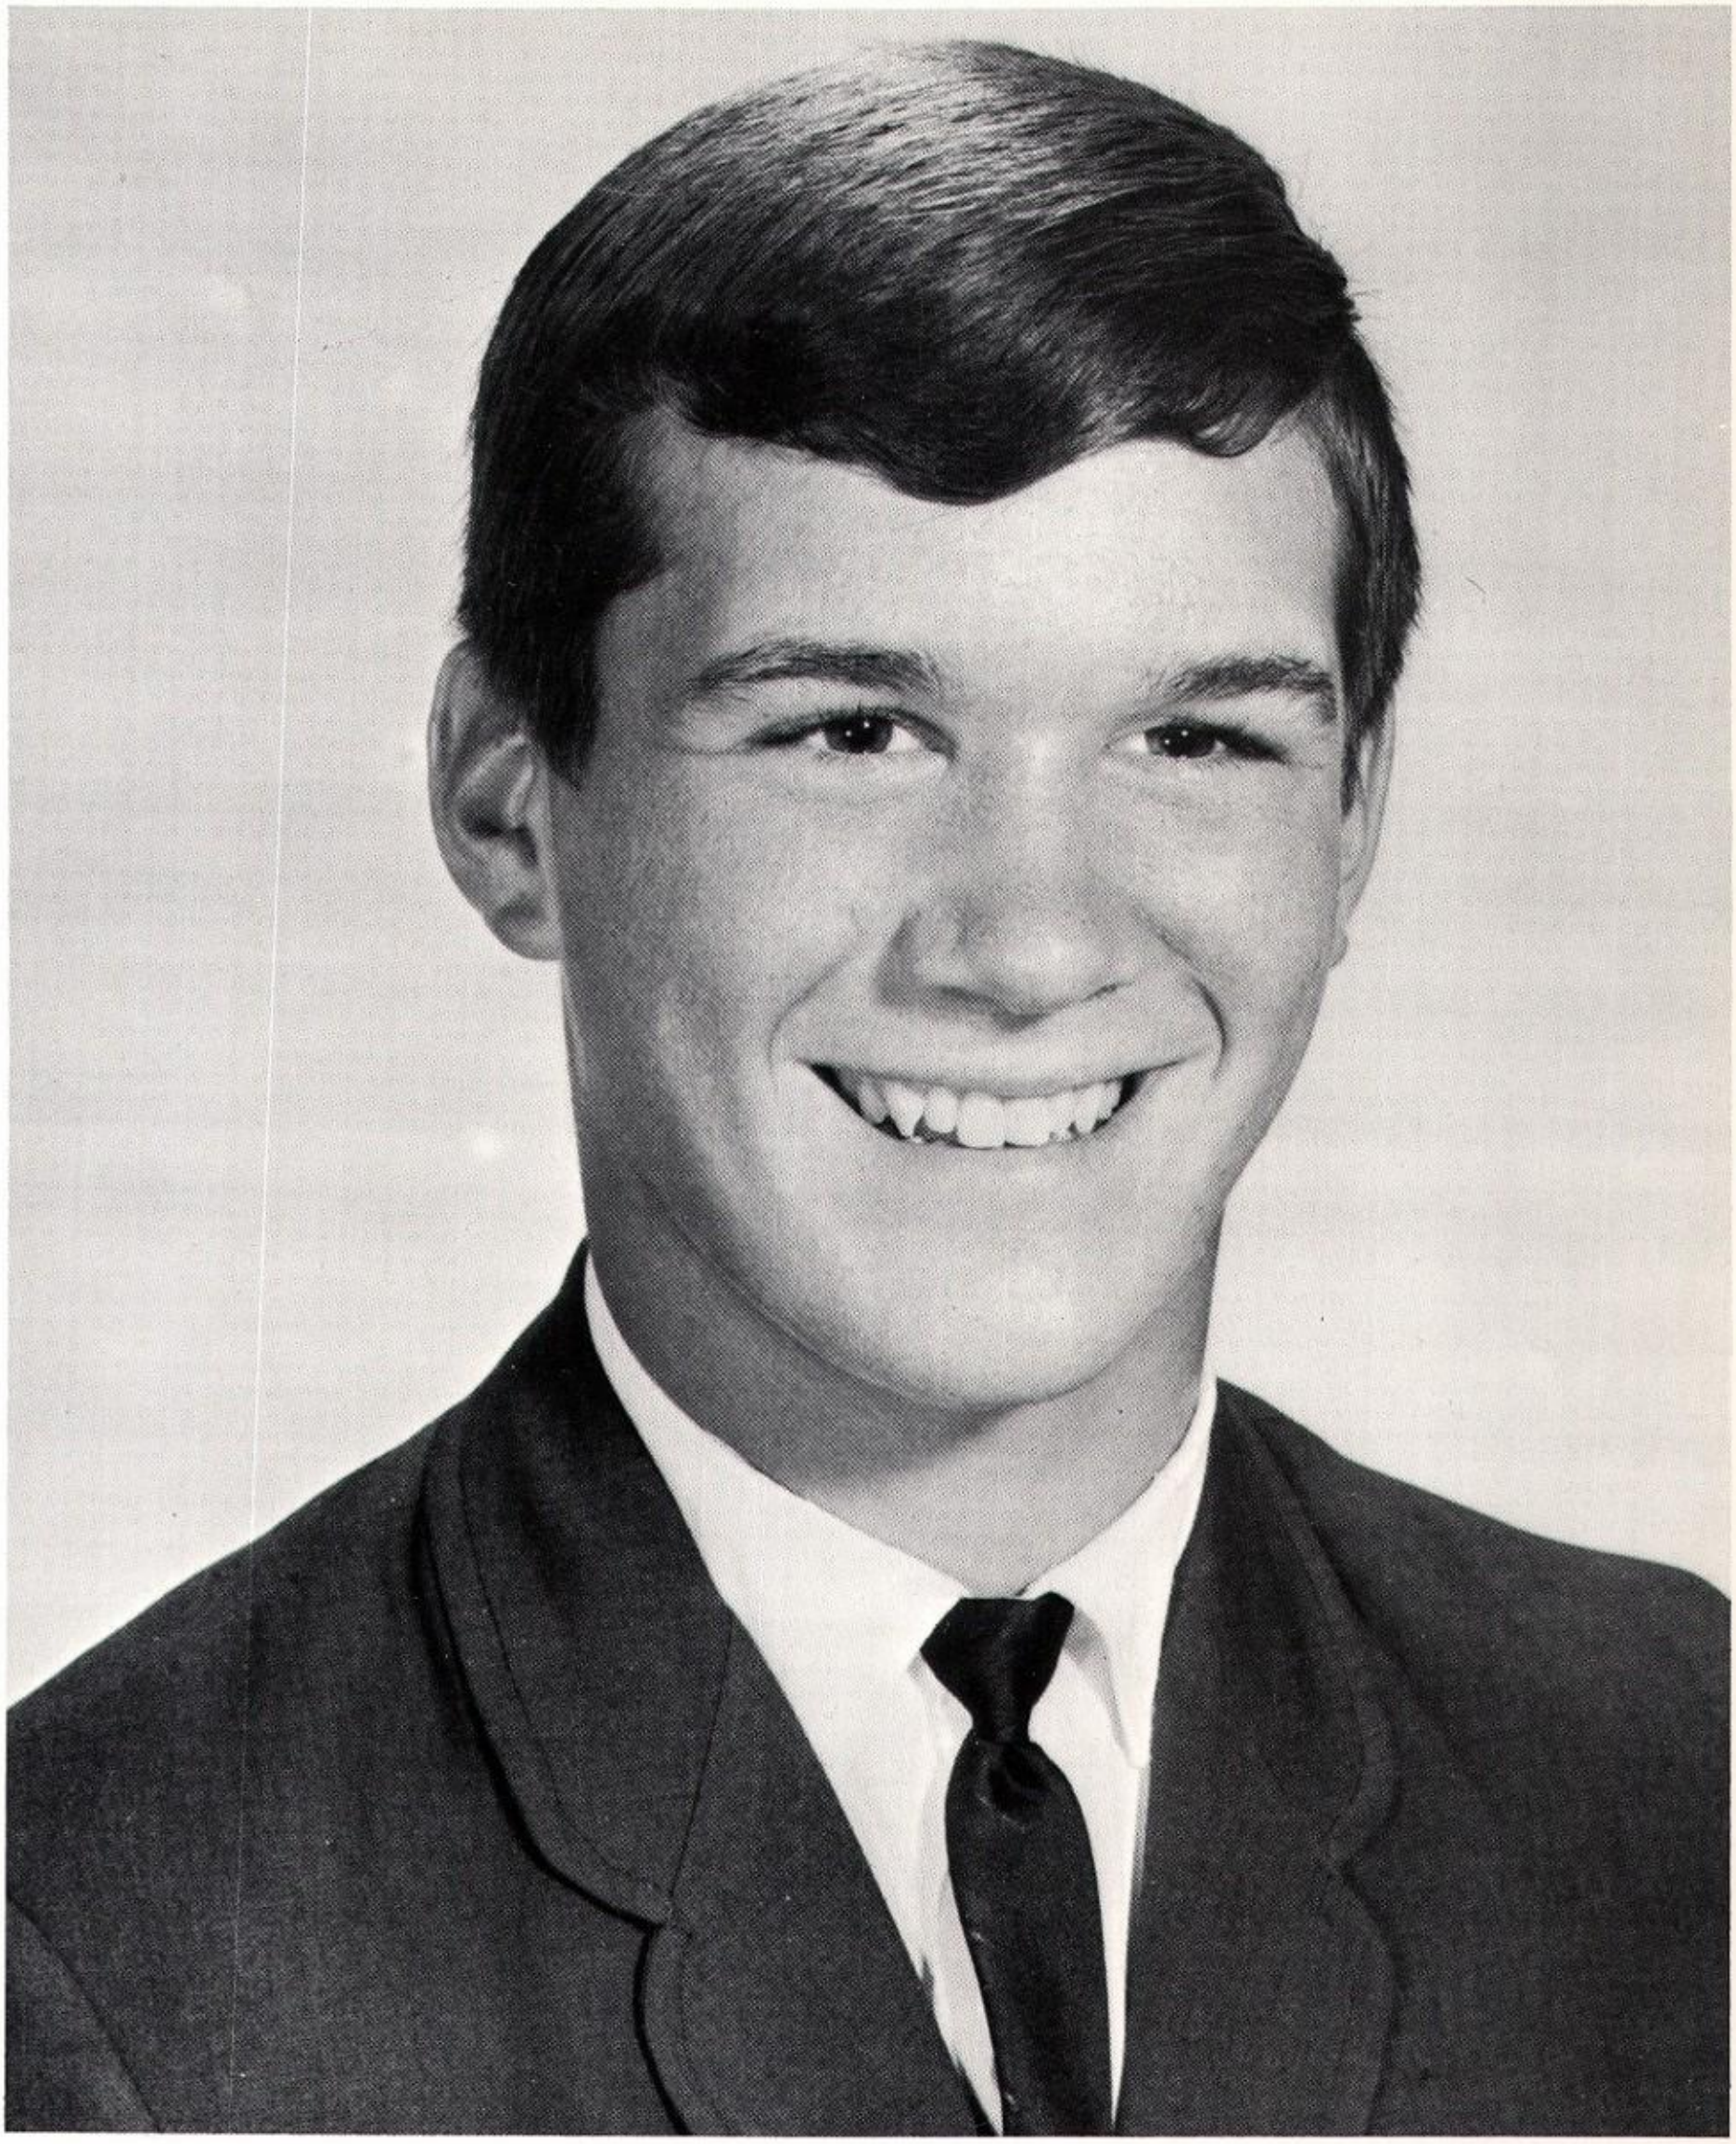
Girl of the Year

LEOLA ORDWAY

LEOLA was named girl of the year by the faculty for her scholarship, citizenship and willingness to work in school activities. Her poise and sincere attitude gained many friendships for her. At Santa Cruz High Leola is president of the National Honor Society, Editor of the Whirlwind, Vice President of the Student Body and President of the F.H.A. She attended the publications workshop two years. She is active in the Dramatics class and won the U. of A. Alumni award for Outstanding Junior Girl.

Boy of the Year



DAVID HOLMES

David was selected boy of the year for his scholastic achievement at Santa Cruz Valley Union High. He is respected by the faculty and student body for his determination to succeed. He was the Outstanding Junior Boy and an alternate to Boys' State. David is Vice president of the National Honor Society, and is a four-year letterman. He has perfect high school attendance and is an active member of the Dramatics department.

GAA HONEY

An FFA Sweetheart has various official duties, such as party hostess and scrapbook keeper, as well as unofficial ones (like participating in goat-milking contests!). Leola Ordway, senior, was elected to serve as the Eloy Chapter of Future Farmers' Sweetheart for 1967.

It's great to be every girl's ideal—and that's what Bruce Martan is—every GAA girl's ideal, anyway. Senior Bruce was voted as the 1967 GAA Honey by the Girl's Athletic Association. His major responsibility was attending a dance held in his honor.

Each year, the Lettermen selected a girl with poise and beauty to preside as mistress of ceremonies during their Annual Talent Show. They found their Sweetheart in the person of Leola Ordway, senior. She was thrilled and excited to be chosen.

A Santa Cruz senior girl reigned over the February 14th Dance. Jeanne Marshall was crowned midway through the gathering, after a "clapping" vote pronounced her to be 1967 Valentine Queen.

Scores on a national test covering homemaking techniques, democratic ideals, and social attitudes revealed Leola Ordway as Santa Cruz's Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow. Leola, a senior, was also selected to represent her high school as holder of the Daughters of the American Revolution Award, based on knowledge of government and applied citizenship.

It Would Be Grand —

—to sit down and then, in one compact phrase, thank everyone who has worked to make a finished yearbook out of layout paper and ideas. It would also be impossible.

Mr. Scott, always available for guidance and consultation, was the mainstay of each plan. Those who perfected the plans, the staff—from assistant editor to copy-counter—Carole Chesley, Charles Duron, Virginia Escalante, Carolyn Etheredge, Cathy Hawse, Jimmie Huie, Joyce Jordan, Myrna Keeling, Reed Kempton, Lynnis Lebbs, Jeanne Marshall, Julie Nutter, Alec Ordway, Janice Waddle, Linda Waddle, Danny White, and Lynette Wootan—you who worked, you who donated time and talent, I thank. I am grateful to Mr. Johnson; because of his artistry, this book has thousands of words preserved in photographs.

Production has been an education for each person involved. To some, like myself, this education is ending. To other, newer staff members a yearbook career stretches ahead. Somewhere, in the roar of hurry-up typing, the grind of writing headings, the sudden blast of copy from a briefly inspired pen—a theme has developed, an idea has followed through—a memory chain's last link has been filed to meet and join its first.

May you take out unendingly all that we have stored in this year's end offering—our yearbook, Whirlwind '67, portraying the education of a complete school year, passes into your hands.
